TOPIC: PROCESS SAFETY MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS FOR CHEMICAL INDUSTRIES

V. Narasimhan
Senior Industrial Safety
Consultant,
Narasimhaan Safety
Consultancy

After 36 years of service, Mr. V. Narasimhan, a chemical engineer by profession, retired in 2008 as a senior executive officer from Coramandel International Limited, a Chennai fertiliser factory. He specialises in the production of ammonia, fertilizer, and the management of utility plants. He was in charge of the ammonia terminal for 10 years, which is the biggest in Asia. He underwent training in process safety management for five years and was the internal auditor of the company for PSMS. After retirement, he joined as a process safety consultant with Ram's Safety Consultants, Chennai. He has done about 100 project reports in safety audits, risk management, risk analysis, mechanical safety audits, fire safety audits, etc. He did South India's major airports' risk assessments for BPCL, HPCL, and Indian Oil Aviation retail outlets. From 2016 he started his company 'Enyes Associates' and was the Chief Safety Consultant and has done numerous safety audits. He has addressed over 25 webinars. He attended 6 international conferences for OHS safety international, Jordan Chemical Engineers International Conference, European Chemical Process Safety Management System Conference, and Jordan Chemical Engineers Conference, etc. So far, 10 articles have been written by him on safety in OSH e-Connect magazine, published from Mumbai. He started his own company, "Narasimhaan Safety Consultancy," in April 2021 and have attended various webinars virtually. Several member ships bestowed honours on him, such as the American Institute of Chemical Engineers, American Process Safety Management, Global Risk Professionals Association, Institution of Safety Engineers in the U.K., and ESH Association in the U.S., Senior Member in the Institution of Safety Engineers, India, Jordan Process Safety Management, and European Process Safety Management.
